Three weeks to join up!

On 1 July our share price will rise to $1.10. We are grateful to the 23 new members that joined in last week.

Now is the perfect time for you to join with the 1650+ members who have made this project possible. Together we are helping our community do its bit to deliver a safer climate for the next generation.

Counting down

We are in the thick of the testing and commissioning stage, and it won't be long before we begin generating pollution-free electricity for the local area. Expect to see the blades starting and stopping over the coming weeks.

Sharing the benefits

We are currently creating the guidelines and look forward to launching our community sustainability fund later this year. The fund will directly support local projects across a range of areas, and serve to strengthen our community.

Ownership from just $100
